

Call for Papers
Humanities Education and Research Association
Annual Conference, March 8 - 10, 2012
Salt Lake City, Utah

Driving of the golden spike at Promontory Summit, Utah on May 10, 1869

Crossroads

In keeping with HERA's mission of promoting the study of the humanities across a wide range of disciplines, we invite presentations exploring any form of artistic representation—literature, the visual arts, music, theatre, opera, dance, film, photography, architecture et al—from any world culture, using an interdisciplinary "crossroads" approach to enrich and deepen our understanding of these cultural artifacts and the societies that produced them. Presentations on interdisciplinary approaches to teaching the humanities are also welcome. Proposals for papers, panels, or workshops must be submitted through the conference web portal on the HERA website at www.h-e-r-a.org. Questions may be directed to the conference organizers, Francesca Lawson (francesca_lawson@byu.edu) or Michael Call (michael_call@byu.edu).

Presentation time for individual papers is limited to 15-20 minutes.

Deadline for submission: November 15, 2011.

The conference will be held at the Marriott Hotel in downtown Salt Lake City. Often described as "The Crossroads of the West," Salt Lake offers the visitor a wide variety of cultural activities as well as world-class ski resorts such as Park City only minutes away by public transportation or private car.
